A Pastor's Tribute.

The sudden death of brother Zachariah Young at his late residence on Friday, February 25, 1910 reminds us of the words of the Prophet of old: "There is but a step between us and death." He was hauling grain and had driven up to the barn when his wife called to him that dinner was ready. He had unloosed one of the horses from the wagon and was standing between the left front wheel and a gate post, had unfastened the tug next to the wagon tongue and was in the act of unfastening the other tug when the partly hitched horse became unruly and pinned him between the front wheel and the post almost crushing out his life. His wife ran to him and calling the neighbors removed him to the house where he lived only two hours and then peacefully passed away, committing himself into the hands of the Lord.

He was born near Monroe City, Mo., March 11, 1844, and died February 25, 1910, age sixty-five years, eleven months and fourteen days.

He was married to Miss Malissa Turnbull, May 15, 1873. To this union six children were born, five of whom survive him. They are: Dovie A. who died Oct. 12, 1875; Allen Lewis, who lives near Emerson; Edgar Lee and Oscar D. both of whom live at Monroe City; Mrs. Agnes L. Biggs, of Tuscon, Ariz.; Mrs. Berta E. Henderson, of Johnson County, Arkansas. He leaves also to mourn his death, his beloved wife, two sisters and one brother. The sisters are: Mrs. Sarah Rice, of Monroe City; Mrs. Jane Vanmeter, of Hannibal, and the brother, John Young living in Texas.

He united with the Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church in Ralls County and was baptized by Brother B. F. Hixson in 1878. He and his wife united with the First Baptist Church of Palmyra, April 23, 1905 and he was consistent in his christian life and constant in attendance upon that church until death.

Brother Young was a hard working industrious farmer and found great pleasure in caring for his stock and building up the farm he had recently bought west of Palmyra. He was an indulgent father, a devoted husband, a good neighbor and though death came suddenly and unexpectedly, he was ready to go. He loved the words of a song often sung in his church:

Speak to my soul dear Jesus, speak now in tenderest tones,
Whisper in loving kindness, "Thou art not left alone"
Open my heart to hear Thee, quickly to hear Thy voice,
Fill thou my heart with praises,
Let me in Thee rejoice.

The funeral services were held on Sunday afternoon in the Baptist church conducted by the pastor and his body was laid to rest in Greenwood Cemetery to await the summons of his Lord and Savior.

"He is not dead, but he has passed Beyond the mists that blind us here,
Into the new and larger life
Of that serener sphere." A. J. T.

THE LADIES' FAVORITE

Wherever Parisian Sage is Known it Has the Call.

Parisian Sage, that most efficient of all hair restorers, is a very delightful and refreshing hair dressing. Besides possessing these qualities it will positively make any woman's hair soft, luxuriant and attractive. L. M. Wood sells it for 50 cents a large bottle and will return your money if it does not cure dandruff, falling hair and itching scalp in two weeks.

"I had given up hopes of ever being cured of dandruff, when I purchased a bottle of Parisian Sage. It has entirely removed the dandruff and has started a growth of new hair, and all this after having been troubled 15 years. I cheerfully recommend Parisian Sage." Mrs. Elizabeth Anderson, Mechanicsburg, Pa.

Advertising That Pays Best.

A Mexico merchant learned something last year, says the Sturgeon Leader.

At the beginning of 1909 he said that the local papers in Mexico were charging him too much for newspaper space and he resolved to get out hand bills and send them over town and through the mails. He labored hard and finally collected a list of eight hundred families and on the first of each month he had 2,000 bills struck announcing his bargains and sent them out twelve hundred of which he scattered in Mexico in the homes of that town and in the wagons of farmers; eight hundred he sent through the postoffice.

According to his own statement let's figure how he came out.

The bills cost him $7 a month or $84 for the year. The stamps cost him $8 a month or $96 for the year. The envelopes cost him $1.50 a month or $18 for the year. A stenographer and boys to distribute the bills cost him $2.75 a month or $33 for the year. He spent a total of $231 not counting one cent for the time he expended in superintending the advertising business.

He could have purchased for $150 enough space to have made his same monthly announcements in the three papers at Mexico. His ads would have been read by ten thousand more persons and he would have saved $80.

This business man says he will stick to the newspaper in the future. He has seen a light. The truth of the matter is the cheapest investment a business man can make is newspaper has an entree into the homes of the best people and his announcements will be seen and appreciated by the readers. If you do not believe newspaper advertising is the cheapest sort of publicity you try to reach the people in any other way.

Drag Roads.

Saturday afternoon uncle Joseph Boardman of near Huntington was in the city and told us that most of the road from his place to the city had been dragged so that one could drive in a trot instead of pulling through mud.

Elias Tooley and others east of the city have dragged the roads and they were in good shape Saturday. But the roads running north and south were too wet to be dragged consequently were still in bad condition.

Mark C. Hawkins and family have been the guests of their friend Mrs. J. Whaley and family at Shelby.

Miss Lucy Havener accompanied her relatives Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Havener, of Shelby, who had been visiting in the city, home for a visit.
